

International Women’s Week – Caselink statistics from 2020

Overall, 57% of new Engagements in Edinburgh in 2020 were from males and 43% were from females. The gender split of the claimant count in January 2021 was 61% of claimants were Male and 39% Female.

- Of the females that started work with the projects in 2020, 9% had achieved a job outcome by the 1st of March 2021.
- Whilst 33% of male starts in 2020 were identified as being at stage 4 on the pipeline (job ready) only 28% of females were at that stage when they started.
- 34% of females supported were under 25 years of age.
- Looking at the outcomes achieved and recorded in 2020 we can see that overall, 43% of outcomes achieved in 2020 were achieved by females – broadly reflecting the gender split of new clients who started in that year.

Projects where over 50% of new engagements in 2020 were from females:
Row Labels	Female	Male
Childcare Providers	89%	11%
Link Mentoring (TPG)	68%	32%
Maximize	65%	35%
Support at Work -Specialist Advice (TPG)	64%	36%
Bridges Project (TPG)	61%	39%
Broomhouse Centre SWEET (South West Edinburgh Employability Training) (TPG)	60%	40%
Volunteer Edinburgh - Employability Service (TPG)	53%	47%
Cyrenians Key to Potential (TPG)	53%	47%
NOLB EERI	53%	47%
Digital Skills	52%	48%
All in Edinburgh	51%	49%

Females are generally better represented in:

- Volunteering (60% of outcomes were to females)
- Retained employment (61% of outcomes)
- Part time jobs (55% of outcomes).

Where females were underrepresented where:

- Self-employed (only 23% of this outcome type were achieved by females)
- Vocational training (35% of this outcome type were recorded by females)
- Employability training (36% of this outcome type were recorded by females).